Carol Bundock & Adam Henson will be our Speakers at the April Federation Annual Meeting.

ADAM HENSON

Farmer & TV Presenter

Adam is currently filming Countryfile and his new book Adventures in Farm was published in early 2012.

Adam is a regular presenter on BBC1's much-loved Countryfile and recently co-presented the second series of BBC2's Learning Line alongside Koko Hurlbert. He also presented on BBC's Coast, Inside Out and has worked for Sky TV, Central News and Top Gear.

Drawing on a wealth of farming knowledge, Adam presents weekly for Radio Gloucestershire and is a regular contributor to Radio 4's On Your Farm and Farming Today. He also writes for the monthly Countryfile magazine in his capacity as resident farmer.

Planning the Cotswold Farm Park, which pioneers rare breed conservation and is part of the 660-hectare Bestwood Farm, has given Adam an in-depth knowledge of British farming, and led to his expertise being highly sought after for TV, radio and public speaking.

CAROL BUNDOCK

Having moved to Norfolk in 1975, Carol has made the county her home. Both her children were born in Norwich, and she herself went to the University of East Anglia from 1986-89 where she gained a BA (Hons) in English and Drama. She joined the BBC immediately after graduating, and spent the next five years at BBC Radio Norfolk presenting both the Breakfast Show and a mid-morning programme.

After that she became a presenter and reporter for BBC Look East until her early retirement last year. She now says she doesn't know how she found the time to work! As well as continuing to do some freelance presenting for the BBC, Carol writes a monthly column for Lark's Talk magazine. She is a Deputy Lieutenant of Norfolk, President of Oldspungie Norfolk, a trustee of the Norfolk Community Foundation and a patron of the UK's Bereavement charity, Nature's Journey.

She is married to fellow journalist Ian Henson, and is a keen gardener, cook and reader. She has had cooking awards for the past three decades, but considers her crowning achievement to being the devoted parent to 2 and a half granddaughters!

On a beautiful autumn day, Monday 14th November, 16 Lady ladies were able to enjoy yet another scintillating afternoon. Its nice some regular faces but were also able to welcome some new ones as well. I am sure they will be back again as we all play to enjoy ourselves. Jean always organises it so well and lets us know whether some particular words are permitted or not - we do get some funny offerings! On this occasion she was assisted by Marion who had never played before - she too may be targeted now!

The winner with the highest score was Angela. Second was Margaret Mac. The booby prize went to Jackie and the person with the highest word score was Jenny. Well done to you all!

Our thanks to Jean for yet another great afternoon and to Marion for the tea and biscuits. We look forward to the next one.

Margaret Hickard, Chelvington WI

THE COOKING CANON CHALLENGE CUP

On September 20th twelve of SWFWI's best darts players headed to Poringthorpe to play SEFWA for the Cooking Canon Challenge Cup.

As you know we did not have a darts league this year so last year's winners Great Britain and the winners of the knock out we held in August, Hadleigh, were our main players. St Edmundsbury and Rodingham provided players for the pairs.

All the teams were very closely matched and each game went to the wire. Sadly in the end, we had to stop play. Suffolk East made us very welcome and we look forward to hosting the return match next year.

Thank you to all players who took part.

In the event of any conflict between these Conditions and those incorporated in any form of offer or other correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser, these Conditions shall take precedence.
- 7.2 The Contract shall be governed by the laws of England and each party submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts save that the Publisher reserves the right to take action against the Advertiser in any other jurisdiction.
